Interim regulations on doctoral procedures in the MIN Faculty

Enactment of the doctoral degree regulations of the Faculty of Mathematics, Informatics and Natural Sciences of Universität Hamburg from 2nd May 2018: New doctoral degree regulations of the Faculty of Mathematics, Informatics and Natural Sciences of Universität Hamburg come into effect from 1 October 2019. These 'new' doctoral degree regulations replace the doctoral degree regulations of the Faculty of Mathematics, Informatics and Natural Sciences of Universität Hamburg from 1st December 2010 (with amendments from 2nd May 2012 and 10th October 2012).

All doctoral candidates applying for admission to doctoral procedures in the MIN Faculty as from 1st October 2019 will carry out their doctoral studies according to the 'new' doctoral degree regulations from 2nd May 2018. This applies for all applications for admission to doctoral procedures which were submitted as from 1st October 2019 to the Academic Office of the Departments of Biology, Chemistry, Earth System Sciences, Informatics, Mathematics and to the Doctoral Office of the Department of Physics and in which the doctoral degree regulations from 2nd May 2018 are listed under „Promotion | Doctoral project“ on p. 2 as the doctoral degree regulations according to which the doctoral procedures will be conducted.

The following interim regulations apply for doctoral candidates (see § 21 of the doctoral degree regulations of the MIN Faculty from 2nd May 2018):

Doctoral candidates admitted to doctoral procedures before the enactment of the 'new' doctoral degree regulations can continue their doctoral procedures according to the rules of the 'new' doctoral degree regulations from 2nd May 2018 upon joint request by the doctoral candidate and her/his supervisors. This applies for all doctoral procedures which are conducted according to the doctoral degree regulations of the MIN Faculty from 1st December 2010 or the departmental doctoral degree regulations. The application form (see next page) must be submitted to your Academic Office / Doctoral Office.
